Brookside Meritorious Service Award

Process:

A group or individual may nominate a Brooksider for this Award. Those nominating should consider how the service shown added to the life and vitality of the church and its mission, and consider not only those who have served on boards or committees.

Names and a narrative summary of why the person is being nominated is submitted to the Pastor who will take the names to the governing body (Steering/Ministry of the Whole).

If there is more than one nominee the governing body will make the selection.

This award is not intended to be given on a scheduled basis but as deserving individuals are nominated.

Criteria:

This person has shown a willingness to serve, volunteer and coach. The candidate sees a need and gets it done and inspires others to want to join in the commitment.

- Person honored must be a Brookside member.

- Must be an active member for at least 10 years.

- Most importantly, this candidate offers a Christian welcome to all.
