

BROOKSIDE

Congregational Church

Covenant - We covenant one with another to seek and respond to the Word and the will of God. We pledge to walk together in the way of the Lord, made known and to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of this church to witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ in all the world while worshiping God and striving for truth, justice, and peace. As did our forebears, we depend on the Holy Spirit to lead and empower us. We pray for the coming reign of God, and we look with faith toward the triumph of righteousness and eternal life.

from BCCUCC by-laws June 2012

Covenant for Christian Communication

As people called to follow our Savior Jesus Christ, we acknowledge Christ's teaching in Matthew 18:15-17, 21-22 and the Holy Spirit's guidance in Ephesians 4:15 concerning communication. As a Christian congregation in covenant with Christ as the Head of the Church, we accept responsibility to make God's teaching our watchwords.

Scripture Regarding Communication

Matthew 18:15-17, 21-22

“If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member re-fuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector...”

Then Peter came and said to (Jesus), “Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?” Jesus said to him, “Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.”

Ephesians 4:15

“Speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the Head, into Christ.

BROOKSIDE

Congregational Church

Guidelines Concerning Communication

- When we hear something that raises concerns for us, we shall first make every effort to speak directly, one-to-one with the person involved. The pastor(s) may be asked to coach us in advance, or to be present to witness communication as Jesus specifies at step two of the Matthew 18 process. If talking one-to-one with one or two others fails, then concerns may be referred to the relevant group in the church or as a last resort the whole congregation.
- In order to speak truth in love, we shall speak for ourselves using “I” statements, not claim to represent others or use accusatory “you” statements.
- We shall ask questions for clarification in order to confirm that we have understood correctly; we shall speak from factual information rather than leaping to conclusions based on assumptions or speculation; and we shall affirm the merit in another person’s idea or concern before we note its weakness.
- When difficult subjects need to be named, we shall pray for all concerned and seek guidance of the pastor(s) for help in speaking truth in love.
- We accept that understanding and respecting each other does not necessarily mean agreeing with each other.
- We affirm that the Holy Spirit may speak through any of us, so that all of us deserve a respectful hearing, even though congregational decisions are made by majority vote.
- While all people are welcome in Christian communities, behavior that is unchristian (for example: threatening, taunting, demeaning, harassing or attacking) conflicts with Christ’s teaching and will not be tolerated.

Received with thanks from Rev. Stephen Washburn, intentional interim minister, UCC.
Adapted by Council on Ministries on 4/19/16.